

VSRP SECURITY
Vigilant Security & Response Personnel

INTRODUCTION

VSRP Manpower Services Private Limited is a professionally managed manpower and security services organization dedicated to safeguarding people, property, and business operations through reliable and disciplined security solutions. The company specializes in deploying trained and vigilant security personnel across residential, commercial, industrial, and institutional establishments.

Our operating philosophy is founded on responsibility, alertness, and accountability. Every security professional deployed by VSRP undergoes careful screening, structured training, and active supervision to ensure consistent performance and professional conduct. We recognize that security is not merely a physical presence — it requires preparedness, preventive awareness, and timely response.

Supported by systematic supervision and ethical service practices, VSRP delivers dependable security solutions that enable clients to operate with confidence and peace of mind.

OUR VISION

To be a trusted and dependable security services partner recognized for professionalism, discipline, and reliability.

OUR MISSION

To provide effective and responsible security manpower through structured training, strict supervision, and ethical service practices, ensuring safety and confidence for every client we serve.

LEADERSHIP TEAM

“

Mr. Rupesh Kumar Singh brings more than two decades of hands-on experience in managing security operations for corporate establishments, particularly within the builder and real estate sector. His practical understanding of corporate environments and potential risk areas enables the company to design structured, practical, and site-appropriate security arrangements.

He oversees client coordination, operational planning, and service expansion, ensuring that every deployment aligns with the specific safety and operational requirements of each organization.
